

Project: Investigating double break (or stacked rotation) options

Bio: Chris Wilkins, West Midlands Groups. Chris Wilkins, WMG R & D Coordinator, B.Sc.(Agric.), Grad. Dip. Bus. Admin., MACID. Based in Badgingarra, Chris is an agronomic & agribusiness advisor who has 25 years of experience in WA's agricultural industry, including offering farm business, agronomy, farming systems & crop protection advice through his Vision Agribusiness Services company for the past 16 years. Chris is also a Director of one of the State's leading agricultural consultancy businesses, Synergy Consulting WA; a member of GRDC's Western Panel; the Chairman of the Council of Grain Grower Organisations Ltd (COGGO) & a member of WA Agriculture Minister Ken Baston's Ministerial Agricultural Advisory Council.

2016

- Small plot trial at Phil Gray's property, Nokaning (just N of Merredin)
 - Late sown
 - Less than ideal establishment
- Now 4 demonstration sites
 - All pasture or fallow in 2016

2017 plans

- Year 2 at Nokaning, with improvements
- Various crops at the demo sites
 - Lentils
 - Chickpeas
 - Oats
 - Albus lupins
 - Canola

